PERSONAL HISTORY

(Please note that we are unable to submit the application if any information is missing)

Provide the details of your personal history since the age of 18, or the past 10 years, whichever is most recent.

Start with the most recent information. Under “Activity”, write your occupation or job title if you were working. If you were not working, provide information on what you were doing (for example: unemployed, studying, travelling, retired, in detention, etc.). If you were outside your country or territory of nationality, indicate your status in that country or territory.

Note: Please ensure that you do not leave any gaps in time.

Failure to account for all time periods will result in a delay in the processing of your application.
